

CELIZ International Center is a research and training center in the socio-human field, which promotes lifelong learning and improving people's skills, offering educational resources and various training courses, creating and developing new methodologies in the field of education, social work, personal development and communication.

The field of activity of the organization is: research and development in social sciences and humanities; basic, continuous and complementary training activities in socio-human education and research, analysis and human personal development; designing and conducting studies and scientific research in various fields of interest, independently or in various forms of collaboration and partnership; carrying out activities and programs of information, education, training, for different fields of interest, addressed to communities, organizations, groups and individuals, especially to the various disadvantaged categories.

Also, Celiz is active in the development, elaboration and development of its own programs and projects and in partnership, with individuals and legal entities, public authorities, institutions and organizations, from the country and from abroad; in the organization of symposia, round tables, study workshops, as well as any other specialized meetings with internal and international participation, on topics related to achieving the purpose of the Center.

The mission of the Celiz Center is to carry out all measures, actions, programs, professional activities, specialized services, protection of people, groups and communities with special problems, in difficulty, community development, through measures to prevent marginalization or social exclusion.

The center offers training programs, intercultural education, psychological counselling and school and career guidance and educational programs to increase self-esteem, self-confidence, positive identification with the group and increase the ability to make decisions and find solutions to problems. confronts individuals, group or society.

The activities of our institution are:

- Research, awareness-raising, research studies, data collection and analysis and the development of policies based on the results obtained,
- offering more training and education opportunities
- supporting social inclusion, personal and social development
- encouraging young people to take the initiative and participate in democratic life
- supporting the inclusion and integration of disadvantaged people
- conducting active activities for sustainable social development and democratic principles for the promotion of civil society.

Although this organization is a young one, its members, mostly socially involved, have extensive experience in developing educational materials in various fields, training and education, different types of seminars, civic education, non-formal education and learning facilitation. it thus becomes much more interesting.

The CELIZ Center includes a network of several experts in psychology, sociology, research, education, training, humanities, law and behavioral sciences who operate nationally and internationally with the mission of promoting.

social inclusion, education and sustainability, and which bases its activity on the multidisciplinary interaction between several professions. The Celiz Center also has technology experts to achieve its ultimate goals: training, personal development, social inclusion, changing attitudes, skills in providing support to adults and young people, socio-professional guidance.

The members of the organization had the chance to take part in various international projects and thus assimilate different types of working methods. This project will give them the opportunity to share the best experience, giving them the chance to develop new skills and competencies that they will use for their future activities.